

G. Edwin Rush, Associate
erush@sandersroberts.com

Edwin Rush has focused his career on employment litigation and general liability defense. Mr. Rush is a trial attorney and litigator who represents and defends an array of people and organizations in the resolution of various disputes. He has successfully tried cases and settled disputes for clients in state and federal courts throughout California. Some of his clients include municipalities, small business owners, corporations, and professionals.

Mr. Rush counsels and defends his clients in matters involving the defense of claims of professional liability, contract disputes, employment matters, and general liability among other areas. He has participated in multiple jury trials, bench trials, mediations, and hundreds of depositions.

Prior to joining Sanders Roberts, LLP, Mr. Rush held his own practice. A formal veteran, Mr. Rush served the U.S. as an officer in the Navy. Mr. Rush attended the University of London in a prestigious Summer Law Program in 2003.

EDUCATION

J.D., Georgetown University Law Center, 2005

B.A., Music (Vocal Performance), Morehouse College, 2001