Jason Ziven is a litigator and entertainment attorney at Sanders Roberts LLP with a diverse background in business. His practice focuses on all aspects of business and employment litigation from inception to conclusion. His clients include Fortune 100 Companies, high profile entertainers and public figures. He also advises musicians, writers, actors and directors on entertainment transactions.

He was previously an attorney at a prominent litigation firm, where he successfully represented plaintiffs in multiple employment and business disputes, and a leading global retail chain in its transactional matters.

Mr. Ziven served as Director of Business Development at Mills Entertainment, a division of Creative Artists Agency (“CAA”). Leading entertainment and sports agency CAA represents many of the most successful and innovative professionals working in film, television, music, video games and theater. While at Mills, Mr. Ziven negotiated multiple Licensing and Touring Agreements with the largest entertainment companies and globally recognized talent, including Sony Pictures Entertainment and Otter Media. Mr. Ziven also structured Sponsorship Agreements for national tours with Fortune 500 companies, such as Toyota and Universal Pictures. Furthermore, he managed relationships with multiple private law firms.

He launched his career as a member of the Summa Group at Oppenheimer & Co., a full-service investment bank. The Summa division managed in excess of $1.5B for the world’s leading entertainers and entrepreneurs. As a member of the Summa team, Mr. Ziven worked intimately with established investment bankers, attorneys, business managers and talent managers to further the interest of the firm’s clients.

Upon graduating law school, Mr. Ziven completed the Trial Advocacy Program in the office of the Los Angeles City Attorney. As a prosecutor, Mr. Ziven tried multiple criminal cases to verdict.

A third-generation attorney and graduate of Harvard-Westlake, Mr. Ziven is an active member of the University of Pennsylvania’s Alumni Association and the Los Angeles Jewish Federation. He completed the Rautenberg New Leaders Project within the Jewish Federation, which is a highly selective year long program designed to groom emerging civic leaders in Los Angeles. Mr. Ziven is a member of Connect Israel, a non-profit organization founded to strengthen ties between America and Israel by fostering relationships between its members and leading Israeli entrepreneurs and venture capitalists.

Mr. Ziven is active in local, state and national politics, and has advised national political campaigns on strategic initiatives. Leading entrepreneurs, investors, business executives and political leaders regularly rely on Mr. Ziven for advice.
